Amos himself was well aware how long he would have hesitated had the question been asked of him. As the seconds passed, he began to fear for Jack's life, and wished he had had a chance to figure some other way to get the mirror out. One minute passed; perhaps they could have tricked the girl into bringing it up herself. Two minutes; they could have tied a string to the leg of a frog and sent him down to do the searching. Three minutes; there was not a bubble on the water, and Amos surprised himself by deciding the only thing to do was to jump in and at least try to save the prince. But there was a splash of water at his feet. "What does the title mean?" he asked, hoping it might modify the unfriendly message of the four short. It was impossible to answer with ice in my chest. I could only stare back while she hunted around for. than her for a companion. I wondered, too, when I might see Selene again. "I meant, would you like some now, with me? I've got a six-pack."
