The owners just came from the restaurant, and, "You what?" Jean gasped, horrified. "I'm still with you." Lechat didn't want to see Celia dragged through an ordeal again. He raised his arms to attract attention back to himself. "But don't you see what it means," he said. The voices on the screen and inside the room died away. "If that information was made public, it might be enough to cause Sterm's remaining supporters to turn on him—apart from the few who were in on the sham. Surely if that happened he'd have to see that it was all over. He's hanging on by the thread of a lie, and we possess proof of the truth that cut that thread. That gives us an option to try resorting to less drastic measures. And after all, wouldn't that be in keeping with the entire Chironian strategy?" "When did I say that?" Leilani asked disingenuously. "You couldn't afford one." contortion. He teeters but keeps his balance and puts his shaggy burden down on the floor of the. "You'd be welcome to come too if you want," Rastus said. "A good question," Wellington commented. He's rapidly losing confidence. Lacking adequate self-assurance, no fugitive can maintain a credible. Bobby Zoon couldn't resist indulging in the techniques that he was learning in film school. especially as this was a truth that she had so long avoided contemplating. "Hey, kid, how do you like—?" returns quietly Jo the open bedroom door, the dog remaining by his side. "Somebody has to run the Army. It's just his turn. He's as qualified to do it as anyone else." CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN. The muscles of Sterm's face tensed; he quivered visibly with the effort of suppressing his rage. "I was willing to bargain," he grated. "Evidently we have failed to impress upon you the seriousness of our intentions. Very well, you leave me no further choice. Perhaps a demonstration will serve to convince you." He turned to Stormbel. "General, advise the status of the missile now targeted at the Chiron scientific base in northern Selene." She was in her late thirties—Te. Evidently one of the Founders—and carried herself with a stately elegance that was proud and upright without crossing the boundary into haughtiness. Her hair hung naturally to her shoulders and was off-blonde with a vivid, fiery tint that bordered on orange in the sunlight; her face was firm and well formed in a way that reminded him vaguely of Celia Kalens, though with more girlishness about it, a softer nose and chin, and a mouth that looked as if it laughed more spontaneously. She was tall, on the slim side of average, but nicely proportioned, and dressed in a stylish but unpretentious two-piece jacket and skirt in beige trimmed with rust red, which revealed shapely, tanned calves that tensed and relaxed hypnotically as she walked. anyway. She had killed it some time ago. Under the tall chest of drawers, nothing flopped, nothing hissed. Leading with her good leg, dragging her left, long-practiced grace abandoned, hard-won dignity lost, The Windchaser begins to slow as the driver checks his side-view mirrors. Even serial killers who keep. He didn't think too much about things like that anymore; his visions of being a great leader and achiever in bringing the Word to Chiron had faded over the years. And instead . . . what? Now that the ship was almost there, he found he had no clear idea of what he wanted to do . . . nothing apart from continuing to live the kind of life that he had long ago settled down to as routine, but in different surroundings. brain damage that allows little self-awareness and no hope of a normal life. CHAPTER EIGHT. "Only one boy in a wheelchair, as far as I know." "Oh, God . . ." Jean whispered. "They're going to bring out those bombs." Donella declares, "If anyone around here has a box of chocolates for a brain, then he's sitting in front of. Lechat pursed his lips for a second, and then nodded curtly. "It do it," he said simply. He averted his eyes for a moment longer, and then looked across at Celia. The others had read, the same thing and followed his gaze, knowing what they were asking her to do. Colman could see the torment in her eyes as she looked back at Lechat. After all that had happened, she would have to leave the safety and security of Franklin to return to Phoenix, from there to the shuttle base, and then all the way back up to the Mayflower II. There was no other way. her suspicions directly, however, she would risk driving Leilani to further evasion. For reasons that she. "Are you all right?" Micky asked, moving along the fence toward the collapsed section of pickets. saturated with toxins. on the head. She hates him a lot, which is maybe why she hates me and Luki a little, too. And Luki more. Understanding its new master's intent, the dog springs into the cargo bed of the truck, landing so lightly. "You never asked me," Swyley answered over his shoulder. It's not real life. There isn't anything like that in real life. "Who cares? It's more fun. Why be a drag?" slams him, rich with the stink of hot metal and motor oil. men, then two others. Or four. Or ten. Or legions. "That's how they get rich," Pernak said. "By being good at what they do and getting better. Who but a crazy would do anything and stay poor by choice?" After stripping down to panties and a tank top, she sat in bed, atop the sheets, sipping cold lemon vodka. "But that ridiculous! What's to stop anyone walking in off the street from giving orders?" after the semi comes to a full stop, these doors slide open, and men in riot gear jump out of the rig, not. "Opposed," Geneva responded with firm resolve. bunch? traditionally employed. Smothering her with a pillow or administering a lethal injection prior to. GENEROUS SLICES of homemade apple pie. Simple white plates bought at Sears. Yellow plastic. 11 as a kid by an uncle who had died fifteen years into the voyage from a heart condition, but that was about all. The living room alone could have housed a Third World family of twelve, complete with livestock. Leilani said, "This is great potato salad, Mrs. D." Fingertips steepled toward the bridge of her nose, Geneva half hid her face in a prayer clasp, as if the desperately needed mechanical respirator; the compressor motor rattled and expired. There seemed to be no more to say. The Terrans looked resignedly at each other while the Chironians on the screen continued to stare out with solemn but unyielding faces. They could warn Stern now and risk having to use their weapon while the ship still held a sizable population if he ignored the warning, or they could wait until he challenged them, which ran the risk of their having to retaliate without warning if Stern chose to move first and challenge later. Those were the ground rules, but within those limits the Chironians were evidently open to suggestions or persuasion. The painter glanced across and noticed them watching. "Nice day," he commented and continued with his work. The surface that he was finishing had been thoroughly cleaned, filled, smoothed, and primed, and a couple of planks had been replaced and a windowsill repaired in readiness for coating. The woodwork was neat and clean, and the pieces fitted precisely; the painter worked on with slow, deliberate movements that smoothed the paint into the grain to leave no brush marks or uneven patches. The three Terrans crossed the street and stood for a while to watch more closely. Slap-slap-slap of his sneakers echoes between the bank and the trees, slap-slap-slap, a spoor of sound. Admittedly, the character of his excitement is different from what he feels when he experiences such more attitude than Schwarzenegger with a bee up his ass, although they're wanted by the FBI and surely. "Your dad's a cop?" Past the galley and dining nook lies a combination bathroom and laundry. The dog's panting acquires a. "It's my table, so I'll say grace my way, without editorial comment," Geneva declared. "And when I'm." But 1ay's still got a point," Bernard said, glancing at his son and nodding "What about the people who won't use them?" He wasn't entirely sure why he had given the place another? and so maudlin? name by which he usually. "You bitch" Celia protested. "I want to hear about it now." Micky was scared as she hadn't been scared in fifteen years or longer. She felt enslaved once more to. "I workout." Oblivious of Micky, Sinsemilla sat, elbows propped on her knees, chin cupped in the heels of her hands, with Nature. "As one, the two cowboys start toward Curtis. Donella calls to them, but even she, in her majestic. Yeller will understand this to be an admonition against eating the sausages. Some motorists, recognizing the length of the delay ahead of them, have switched off their engines and with the thingy. "The country's Founding Fathers would be so proud." Celia raised her head suddenly to look up at Lechat. "But I only shot him twice, not six times as the soldiers found. And the house hadn't been broken into when I left. Don't you see what that means?" tires. Pernak tossed up his hands. "I've been to take a look at their university and what they do there. You wouldn't believe it. And I've already got a position if I want it, for no other reason than that people already there say it's okay. You get a house, for nothing . . . a good one. Or they'd build you one however you want it. How can you say no? We're going to become Chironians. And so will everybody else when they've gotten over the voyage. Then people like Kalens can yell all they want, but what can they do if there's nobody left to take any notice? It's as I said-you have to start thinking like Chironians." "I find them a refreshingly honest and direct people. You know where you stand with them." Bernard gave a slight shrug. "In view of the short time we've been here, I think everything has gone surprisingly well. Certainly it could have been a lot worse." The people who have fled the restaurant appear to share Curtis's grim assessment of the situation. All. "I don't know. We haven't tried it yet," Bernard answered. He raised his voice a fraction. "Anybody home? What do we have to do to get a computer in this place?" No response. boy hears voices. Men in easy conversation. "To Congress, the people." "It's a klutz," Adam said wearily. "It's got a glitch in its visual circuits somewhere ... something like that. I don't know." braced leg had ever before allowed, playing cowgirl-with-lariat as she rose from the floor. Swung like a. Jay sat at an empty booth while Colman collected two coffees from the counter, then inserted' his Army pay-card into a slot. In a lot of ways Jay reminded Colman of himself when he was a lot younger. Colman had acquired his name from a professional couple who adopted him when he was eleven to provide company for their own son, Don, who was two years older. They hadn't wanted to disrupt their careers by having another child of their own. Colman's stepfather was a thermodynamics engineer involved with heat exchangers in magnetohydrodynamics systems, which accounted for Colman's early interest in technology. Although the Colmans had done their best to treat both boys equally, Steve resented Don's basic schooling and was jealous when Don went to college to study engineering, even though he himself had then been too young W do the 'same. The rebelliousness that" had contributed W Steve's being placed in the home for wayward adolescents from which he had been adopted reappeared, resulting in his giving the couple some hard times, which upon reflection he felt bad about. For some reason that Steve didn't understand, he felt that if he could help Jay realize his potential and use the opportunities he had, it would make up for all that. Why, he didn't know, because nothing he did now could make any difference to the Colmans, who were probably old and gray somewhere, but he felt he owed it to them. People's minds worked like that. Minds could be very strange. He feels for the light switch and clicks it on and immediately off, just to get a glimpse of his surroundings. mother anywhere. porch roof at the Hammond farmhouse, surely the mutt can clear the truck entirely, avoiding the vertical. At about the same moment, inside the memory unit of a lower-security logistics computer located on the same floor, the references to C Company contained in a routine order-of-the-day suddenly and mysteriously changed themselves into references to D Company. At the same time, D Company's orders to remain standing by at the barracks until further notice transformed themselves into orders for C Company. Ten minutes later a harassed clerk in Phoenix brought the change to the attention of Captain Blakeney, who commanded C Company. Blakeney, far from being disposed to query it, told the clerk to send off an acknowledgment, and then gratefully went back to bed. Inside the logistics computer in the Mayflower II, an instruction that shouldn't have been in memory was activated by the incoming transmission, scanned the message and identified it as carrying one of the originator codes assigned to C Company, then quietly erased it. cast loose stones that rattle like dice into the darkness. nearer southbound lanes, cars overtake the auto transport and, from time to time, large trucks pass, as. Juanita saw the expressions on Bernard's and Jay's faces. "Are you claiming that we're any more violent or barbaric than your societies? We've never had a war. We've never dropped bombs on houses full of people who had nothing to do with the argument. We've never burned, maimed, blinded, and blown arms and legs off of people who just wanted to live their lives and who never harmed anybody. We've never shot anyone who didn't ask for it. Can you say the same? Okay, so the system's not perfect. Is yours?" and country-and-western bars from Omaha to Santa Fe, to Abilene, to Houston, to Reno, to Denver. She had talked with her mouth full of pie. She had hogged down a second piece. All right, okay, bad. Stanislaw entered more commands. A different table of information appeared on the screen. "SD guard details and timetable for posts inside the Columbia District tonight," Stanislaw said. They would refrain from doing anything to that one until the last moment. Geneva, who knew her niece's stoic nature, nevertheless didn't seem surprised by the tears. She didn't. She had settled in a chair at a nearby writing desk. Opening her small purse, extracting a checkbook, bark far behind him.
